Headline:
Some brighter spells but generally cloudy with rain later.

Today:
Some brightness, especially in the east, this morning but generally cloudy with a little rain in the west. Becoming brighter for a time in the early afternoon before increasing cloud brings outbreaks of rain from late afternoon. Freshening southeasterly winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudy evening and night with outbreaks of rain, most persistent and occasionally heavy across the Angus hills and eastern Perthshire hills. Freshening southeasterly winds. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Friday:
A mostly cloudy day with outbreaks of occasionally heavy rain. The rain tends to become lighter and patchier from the northwest during the afternoon with winds easing. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Mostly cloudy Saturday with patchy light rain, some brightness in west. Brighter Sunday as winds turn southerly. Overnight rain clears early Monday then dry with sunny spells.
